

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

DARRON LEON JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

Commissioner of the Social Security Administration,

Defendant.

Case No. CIV-22-157-GLJ

OPINION AND ORDER AWARDING
ATTORNEY'S FEES UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)

Plaintiff appealed the decision of the Commissioner of the Social Security Administration denying his request for benefits. The Court granted the Social Security Administration's unopposed Motion to Remand, reversing the Commissioner's decision and remanding the case for further proceedings [Docket Nos. 21-23]. On remand, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") found that Plaintiff was disabled and awarded him past-due benefits. Plaintiff's attorney now seeks an award of fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1).² For the reasons set forth below, the Court finds that Plaintiff's Motion for ¹ On December 20, 2023, Martin J. O'Malley became the Commissioner of Social Security. In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 25(d), Mr. O'Malley is substituted for Kilolo Kijakazi as the Defendant in this action.

² Plaintiff's motion inadvertently identified $15, 907.00 as the amount of fees requested, but has now stipulated that the correct amount is a slightly reduced number, as discussed below. See Docket No. 30, p. 2.

Attorney Fees Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b) [Docket No. 28] should be granted and that Plaintiff's attorney should be awarded $15,570.75 in attorney's fees.

The Court must initially determine if the motion at issue is timely. Section 406(b) does not address when a motion for attorneys' fees should be filed, so the Tenth Circuit has instructed that "the best option . . . is for counsel to employ Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) in seeking a § 406(b)(1) fee award." McGraw v. Barnhart, 450 F.3d 493, 505 (10th Cir. 2006). Thus, a Section 406(b) motion for attorneys' fees must be filed within a reasonable time of receipt of the Notice of Award. See generally Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(c)(1) ("A motion under Rule 60(b) must be made within a reasonable time[.]"). In this district, "a reasonable time" means within thirty days of issuance of the Notice of Award unless there is good reason for a lengthier delay. See, e. g., Harbert v. Astrue, 2010 WL 3238958 at *1 n.4 (E.D. Okla. Aug. 16, 2010) (slip op.) ("The Court notes here that while no explanation is needed for a Section 406(b)(1) motion filed within thirty days of issuance of the notice of appeal, lengthier delays will henceforth be closely scrutinized for reasonableness, including the reasonableness of efforts made by appellate attorneys to obtain a copy of any notice of award issued to separate agency counsel."). The motion for attorneys' fees in this case was filed on February 10, 2024, sixty-two days after the Notice of Award was issued on December 10, 2023. See Docket No. 28, Ex. 2. In her motion, Plaintiff's counsel indicates that she did not receive from the administrative attorney a copy of the Notice of Award, or other relevant documentation, until January 19, 2024, and that she then filed the present motion within seventeen days of receipt of that necessary information. See Docket No. 28, p. 2 & Ex. 2 (containing filestamp "Received Jan. 19, 2024”). Inasmuch as there are no timeliness objections by the Commissioner, the Court declines to find at this time that the motion was not filed within a reasonable time under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(6).

When “a court renders a judgment favorable to a claimant under this subchapter who was represented before the court by an attorney, the court may determine and allow as part of its judgment a reasonable fee for such representation, not in excess of 25 percent of the total of the past-due benefits to which the claimant is entitled by reason of such judgment[.]” 42 U.S.C. 406(b)(1)(a). The 25% does not include any fee awarded by the Commissioner for representation in administrative proceedings pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(a). See Wrenn v. Astrue, 525 F.3d 931, 937 (10th Cir. 2008) (“Based on the plain language and statutory structure found in § 406, the 25% limitation on fees for court representation found in § 406(b) is not itself limited by the amount of fees awarded by the Commissioner.”). The amount requested in this case is $15,570.75, exactly 25% of Plaintiff’s past-due benefits³ in accordance with the applicable attorney fee agreement. See Docket No. 28, Ex. 4. The Court therefore need only determine if this amount is reasonable for the work performed in this case. Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 807 (2002) (“[Section] 406(b) does not displace contingent-fee agreements as the primary means by which fees are set for successfully representing Social Security benefits claimants in court.

³ The Notice of Award states that the past-due amount is $92,428.00, making 25% of that $23,107.00. However, the Notice of Award did not subtract $30,145.00, which was previously awarded and which Plaintiff received, to provide the most updated amount of past-due benefits. See Docket No. 28, Ex. 2, p. 3. Subtracting the previous award, the total past-due benefits amount to $62,283.00, with 25% of that amount being $15,570.75. Defendant asserts that 25% of $62,283.00 is $15,570.25, but this appears to be a typographical error. The Court understands Plaintiff to be requesting the statutory cap of 25% of past-due benefits, which is $15,570.75.

Rather, § 406(b) calls for court review of such arrangements as an independent check, to assure that they yield reasonable results in particular cases.”). Factors to consider include: (i) the character of the representation and results achieved, (ii) whether any dilatory conduct might allow attorneys to “profit from the accumulation of benefits during the pendency of the case in court[,]” and (iii) whether “the benefits are [so] large in comparison to the amount of time counsel spent on the case” that a windfall results. Id. at 808 (citing McGuire v. Sullivan, 873 F.2d 974, 983 (7th Cir. 1989) (reducing fees for substandard work)); Lewis v. Secretary of Health & Human Services, 707 F.2d 246, 249-50 (6th Cir. 1983) (same); Rodriguez v. Bowen, 865 F.2d 739, 746-47 (6th Cir. 1989) (noting fees are appropriately reduced when undue delay increases past-due benefits or fee is unconscionable in light of the work performed); Wells v. Sullivan, 907 F.2d 367, 372 (2nd Cir. 1990) (court should consider “whether the requested amount is so large as to be a windfall to the attorney”). Contemporaneous billing records may be considered in determining reasonableness. Gisbrecht, 535 U.S. at 808 (“[T]he court may require the claimant’s attorney to submit, not as a basis for satellite litigation, but as an aid to the court’s assessment of the reasonableness of the fee yielded by the fee agreement, a record of the hours spent representing the claimant and a statement of the lawyer’s normal hourly billing charge for noncontingent-fee cases.”) (citing Rodriguez, 865 F.2d at 741).

Based on the factors enunciated in Gisbrecht, the Court concludes that $15,570.75 in attorney’s fees is reasonable for the work done in this case. First, the attorney ably represented Plaintiff in his appeal to this Court and obtained excellent results on his behalf, i. e., a reversal of the Commissioner’s decision denying benefits and remand for further consideration. Plaintiff's success on appeal enabled him not only to prevail in his quest for social security benefits, but also to obtain $5,100.00 in attorney's fees as the prevailing party on appeal under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d). See Docket No. 26. This amount received will essentially reduce any amount awarded from his past-due benefits pursuant to Section 406(b). Second, there is no evidence that Plaintiff's attorney caused any unnecessary delay in these proceedings. Third, the requested fee does not result in any windfall to Plaintiff's attorney, who spent a total of 24.7 hours on this appeal. See Docket No. 28, Ex. 5. This would equate to a rate of $630.39 per hour at most, which is hardly excessive given that the fee was contingent, and the risk of loss was not negligible. The Court therefore concludes that the requested fee of $15,570.75 is reasonable within the guidelines set by Gisbrecht.

It is not clear whether the Commissioner retains sufficient funds to pay the $15,570.75 awarded to the Attorney herein under Section 406(b)(1). If, however, for any reason the Commissioner may not have sufficient funds on hand to satisfy the $15,570.75 awarded herein, Plaintiff's attorney will have to recover the difference from Plaintiff himself, not from his past-due benefits. See Wrenn, 525 F.3d at 933 ("If the amount withheld by the Commissioner is insufficient to satisfy the amount of fees determined reasonable by the court, the attorney must look to the claimant, not the past-due benefits, to recover the difference."). Furthermore, because the $15,570.75 awarded herein pursuant to Section 406(b)(1) exceeds the $5,100.00 previously received by Plaintiff as part of the EAJA fee award, Plaintiff's attorney must refund the latter amount to Plaintiff. See Weakley v. Bowen, 803 F.2d 575, 580 (10th Cir.1986).

Accordingly, Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney Fees Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b) [Docket No. 28] is hereby GRANTED. The Court approves an award of attorney fees in the amount of $15,570.75 to Plaintiff's attorney pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1) and directs the Commissioner to pay to Plaintiff's attorney the balance of any past-due benefits in his possession up to said amount.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 16th day of February, 2024.
